Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Arabic, spanning multiple lines across a rectangular strip of paper. The text is densely written and includes several large, stylized characters or symbols, possibly indicating the start of new sections or specific markers. The paper shows signs of age and wear, with some discoloration and small dark spots.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous passage. The script is dense and flowing, with many ligatures and variations in line height. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including discoloration and some small holes or damage. The text is written in a dark ink, possibly iron gall or a similar dark pigment. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a page from an old book.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, spanning the length of the strip. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. There are several large, stylized characters or symbols interspersed within the lines, possibly serving as section markers or decorative elements. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including two prominent dark circular holes.

Handwritten notes in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.

Handwritten text in Burmese script, consisting of approximately 15 lines. The text is written in a cursive style on aged, slightly discolored paper. There are two dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink smudges, visible on the page. The script is dense and fills most of the page area.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a long, narrow strip of paper, possibly a scroll or a page from a bound volume. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are two distinct circular holes or indentations visible on the right side of the strip, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume or a scroll. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written on a single sheet of paper, showing signs of age and wear. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are two large, dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink blots, visible on the left side of the page. The text is written in a single column, with some lines starting with capital letters that are larger and more ornate than the rest of the script. The overall appearance is that of a historical document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the script and the presence of some large, stylized initial letters or headings. The text is arranged in several lines, with some lines being more densely written than others. There are some small, dark spots or stains on the paper, particularly in the middle section. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged historical document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some ink bleed-through visible from the reverse side. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of 18th or 19th-century handwriting. There are two large, dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink smudges, located approximately one-third and two-thirds of the way across the page.
